Specialist centre
for foods, tourism,
hospitality & events
William Angliss Institute

Subject Code	HOH918	Subject Coordinator
Subject Name	Work Placement	Marcela Fang
Credit points	24	marcela.fang@angliss.edu.au
Study Level	Year 2 (AQF9)
Delivery mode	Blended
Location	Melbourne
Prerequisites	RES801

Subject Overview	This is a 12-week work placement that will enable students to grow their hotel practical experience, through which they will develop an advanced understanding of management and leadership practices in the context of a real hotel organisation. Students will develop an ability to observe and investigate leadership and organisational practices to propose more effective leadership solutions and inform their own leadership practice. This practical subject will include a critical reflection and hotel project (individual). In their reflective assessment piece, students will reflect on prior learning and practical application, either as experienced or observed. The hotel research project will require students to apply the knowledge and skills gained in RES801 to investigate a hotel leadership and organisational practices.

Learning Outcomes	Demonstrate self- and others awareness, use of empathy, and maturing leadership
	Identify and critique hotel leadership and organisational practices
	Critically assess organisational context for effective employee functioning Collect, analyse and synthesise information to develop strategies for solving hospitality challenges

Assessments	Details	Weighting
	e-discussion log	30%
	Research-based case study	40%
	Leadership plan and reflection	30%

Graduate Attributes addressed in this subject	Ethical and social understanding Preparedness
	Systemic and coherent body of knowledge
	Cognitive analysis and synthesise
	Scholarly skills