

Faculty of Higher Education

Subject Code	LED851
Subject Name	Leading Self and Others
Credit points	6
Study Level	Year 1 (AQF8)
Delivery mode	Blended
Location	Melbourne
Prerequisites	N/A

Subject Coordinator
Marcela Fang
marcela.fang@angliss.edu.au

Subject Overview	Current and future leaders are required to use effective leadership skills and behaviours to drive better outcomes at individual, team, organisational and community levels. This is a foundational leadership subject that will foster individual and co-leadership skills and behaviours required in current and future hospitality work contexts. With a combination of theory and practice, students will develop an awareness of their own identity, social and emotional competencies, explore their values and motivation to change and develop leadership goal plan to drive their leadership development journey. Students will begin to develop reflective capacity and learn to engage in intentional change behaviours to propel their leadership career and engage in life-long learning.
-------------------------	---

Learning Outcomes	Critically evaluate your leadership in line with suitable leadership models and measures
	Integrate intentional change theory into the design of leadership development plans
	Evaluate leadership practices and approaches that drive effective outcomes
	Critically assess the impact of social competency on effective intra- and inter-team communication and effectiveness
	Reflect on leadership effectiveness in self and others

Assessments	Details	Weighting
	Leadership team challenge	30%
	Leadership development plan and portfolio	30%
	Reflective journaling	40%

Graduate Attributes addressed in this subject	Preparedness
	Ethical and social understanding
	Systematic and coherent body of knowledge
	Cognitive skills to synthesise and consolidate knowledge
	Interpersonal skills
	Teamwork skills