

Faculty of Higher Education

Subject Code	HOS603
Subject Name	Sustainable Procurement for Hospitality and Tourism
Credit points	6
Study Level	Year 2
Delivery mode	On campus
Location	Melbourne
Prerequisites	None

Subject Coordinator
Ajay Khatter
AjayK@angliss.edu.au

Subject Overview	This subject will introduce the general principles of procurement and the benefits for including sustainability in procurement decisions. Students will explore the procurement management cycle, approaches to supply chain management and the complexities of different distribution models. The subject examines the social, environmental, ethical and economic implications of procurement decision making processes. Students will study the alignment of business strategy with the values of sustainable procurement and Corporate Social Responsibility.
-------------------------	---

Learning Outcomes	Explain the principles and concepts of the procurement cycle
	Examine the relationship between business strategy and procurement decisions
	Evaluate supplier, products and services selection in relation to sustainable business practices and considerations
	Analyse the social, environmental, ethical and economic implications of procurement decisions on the organisation and the supply chain
	Identify opportunities to introduce sustainable practices within the procurement cycle

Assessments	Details	Weighting
	Test	20%
	Literature review	20%
	Strategic purchasing report	60%

Graduate Attributes addressed in this subject	Preparedness
	Ethical and social understanding
	Systematic and coherent body of knowledge
	Cognitive skills to analyse and critique knowledge
	Communication skills
	Personal attributes - problem solving skills